Building Your P.A.R.E.N.T.S. Library Collection

Using the Comprehensive List of Books

P.A.R.E.N.T.S. Library Collection

Your P.A.R.E.N.T.S. Library Collection consists of all Show Books and Teacher Read Aloud Books, as well as other titles you choose from the Comprehensive List of Books. The lesson number in which the book is most appropriate follows most titles on the list. It is also recommended that you consult your local children's librarian for help in finding titles that reflect the particular ethnicities or needs of your population.

How to purchase books

Once you have read through the Comprehensive List of Books and selected ones that seem appropriate for your population, preview and review them at your local library or bookstore. Ordering books through a book distributor (such as Baker & Taylor or Ingram Library Services) is far more efficient than calling individual publishers. Book distributors often give as much as a 40% discount to educational and library programs.

Beware!

Children's books frequently go out of print or are reissued in different editions with no forewarning. Therefore, this list will be subject to change without notice by publishers. If your book distributor no longer carries a title that you really want, try ordering from Amazon.com on the Internet, using their "out of print" service, if necessary.

Comprehensive List of Books

How to Use the Comprehensive List of Books

The Comprehensive List of Books gives you the information you need for ordering the program materials necessary to implement the P.A.R.E.N.T.S. Program.

- Most book titles and all videos are followed by a number or numbers in parentheses that indicate the lesson/s in which the book or video is most appropriate.
- Titles in bold are instructional books. You will need one copy for each participant to read in class and to keep as a Home Book and use for the Home Reading Report.
- Teacher read aloud books are also in bold. You will need only one copy unless you choose to use it as one of your Home Books, and then you will need one for each participant.
- All videos are in bold. Price and ordering phone number are given in place of book edition and ISBN. Some videos take up to 6 weeks to be delivered, so order ahead.
- The abbreviations “hc” and “ppr” stand for hardcover and paperback editions; “brd” stands for board book, “flap” for lift-the-flap, and “pop” for pop-up.
- Pamphlets with no ISBN are listed with price and ordering phone number in place of book edition and ISBN.
- Some titles are followed by no lesson number. These books are included because there is something great about them – a well-told story, outstanding illustrations, a valuable message, or simply appropriate for an age-range underrepresented in the Comprehensive List.
