

Project Second Chance At A Glance

Project Second Chance (PSC) provides free, confidential, one-on-one basic reading and writing instruction to adults.

All tutoring is done by well-trained community volunteers who are supported by professional PSC staff members.

PSC students:

- Read or write below a 6th grade level
- Are over 16 years of age
- Are not enrolled in K-12 school
- Can converse in English without the help of an interpreter
- Meet with a tutor twice a week for 90 minutes a lesson
- Commit to at least 6 months of regular tutoring

PSC tutors:

- Must complete a 14 hour PSC training program (professional teaching experience is NOT necessary!)
- Are over 21 years of age
- Are willing to meet with a student for a 90 minute lesson twice a week
- Commit to volunteering with PSC for at least one year

To enroll as a student or tutor:

- Call the PSC office -- Central call (925) 927-3250; West County call (510) 527-7558; East County call (925) 754-8317
- Email us at psc@ccclib.org
- Visit our website at ccclib.org/psc

Additional information:

- PSC was founded in 1984. In its history, PSC has helped more than 4,600 adults accomplish goals such as read to their children, advance at their jobs, write a phone message, etc.
- Half of PSC's students were born and educated in the United States; the other half speak English, but it is not their native language.

Pleasant Hill and Hercules Staff:

Laura Seaholm, Megan Brown, Kate Marshall
Veronica Kimble and Matilde Giacalone

Antioch Staff:

Karin Madura-Carroll